Sat Apr 14 6:30 pm	We hope you will be at our Titanic Era Ball as part of our Weekend, but, you should know about this extravaganza just in case you want to spend more money :)... In honor of the Titanic's 100th Anniversary, experience the excitement and opulence of a once-in-a-lifetime, 1st Class Titanic gala complete with a delicious six course meal served by costumed stewards. Waltz the night away to music played aboard the Titanic as it steamed across the Atlantic Ocean and into history. Patron level ticket holders will enjoy a special pre-dinner cocktail reception and meet Mrs. Brown’s own descendants! The evening will set sail from Denver’s historic Oxford Hotel, just a block from Union Station and will truly be a Night to Remember! As a gala fundraising event, all proceeds for the evening will go towards the continued restoration and upkeep of the Unsinkable Molly Brown’s Denver home. Individual Ticket $175 / person; Patron Ticket $225 / person. Make the night a couple’s getaway by reserving one of the Oxford Hotel’s luxurious rooms. Just mention “Molly Brown” and receive a special discounted rate for the night of April 14th.	Oxford Hotel 1600 17th St. Denver, CO

Sun Apr 14 4pm	Sinking of the Titanic performance by the JACK Quartet. A musical event 100 years in the making! Be transformed by the sounds of that fateful night with The Sinking of the Titanic, composed by Gavin Bryars, arranged by Payton MacDonald and performed by the renowned JACK Quartet. Hear also MacDonald's own composition, Lifeboat No. 6, and learn about Denver's own heroine of the Titanic, Margaret "Molly" Brown. This amazing concert is the work of our friends at the University of Denver's Newman Center for Performing Arts and Friends of Chamber Music.
